The key to any successful undertaking is to understand the Golden circle. Please answer all questions below, after giving this a thought.
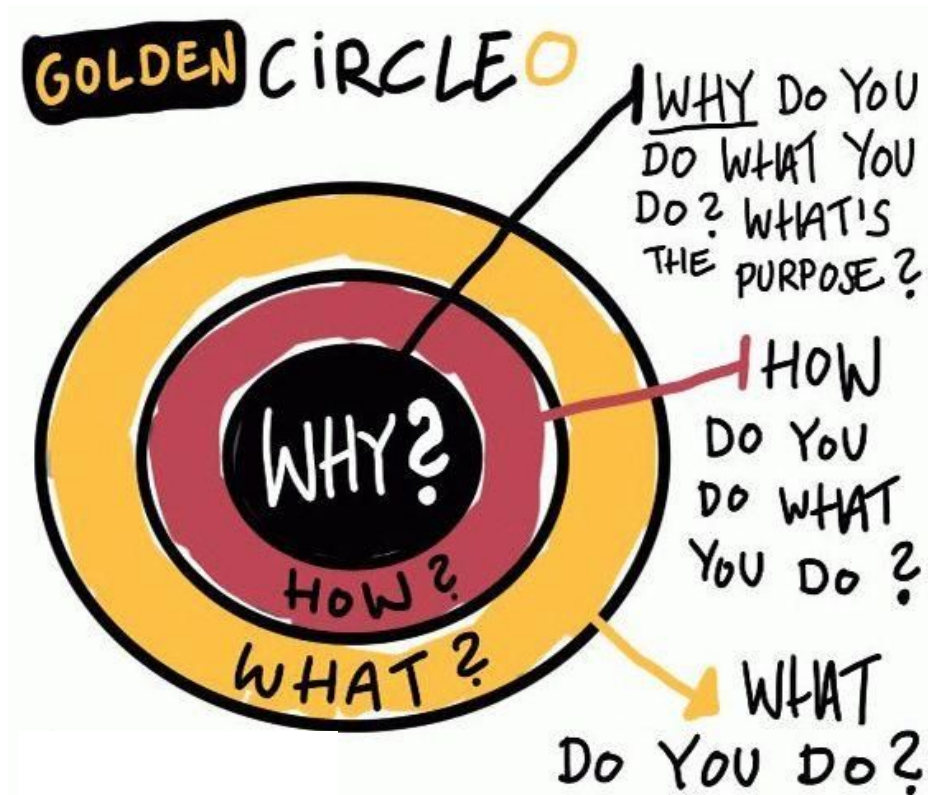

PART A: THE OVERVIEW

(Mandatory questions for all applicants)

1) Do we need a sub-department exclusive to non-engineering students? Justify. What is your vision for this department?
2) Suggest a / a few name(s) for this department and justify them.
3) What is a Moot Court? Perform a stakeholder analysis for Moot Courts. Elucidate how you plan to interact with each of these stakeholders. Suggest the theme for the Moot Courts. List out potential partners and judges.
4) What is a MUN? Perform a stakeholder analysis for a MUN and elucidate how you plan to interact with each of these stakeholders. Suggest different committees for the Shaastra MUN
5) What is a Parliamentary Debate? Perform a stakeholder analysis for the same and elucidate how you plan to interact with each of these stakeholders. Suggest a few motions for the same.
6) Since this is the first time these events are happening in Shaastra, it is very important to create a good first impression. List out ideas to improve the experience of participants, judges & panelists.

7) List your credentials and 2 references and their contact details. (emails and phone number)

PART B: THE SPECIFICS

(Mandatory questions for Super Coordinator applicants; Bonus for coordinator applicants)

1) There are different formats of Parliamentary Debate. Analyse any 3 of these formats and choose the format for this year.
2) Moot Courts have a very well defined target audience. List out your plans for outreach and publicity in law schools.
3) Talk to organizing members of 2 other Moot Courts, Parliamentary Debates & MUNs and analyse their respective events.
4) Give your timeline as Super coordinator/coordinator.
